Vigilant Wealth Management’s Investment Policy Committee

Vigilant Wealth Management’s (“Vigilant”) Investment Policy Committee (“IPC”) consists of eight (8) members. Those members are: Scott Sorensen, Daniel Mulkern, Christopher Lyford, Jean Trim, Samuel Witherspoon, Hannah Santy, John Evans, and James Holler.

The IPC is responsible for establishing and managing Vigilant’s overall investment strategy and security-selection process. The members of the IPC operate as a team, delivering to each client relationship the collective experience and insights of each team member. The IPC meets regularly to assess the macroeconomic environment, financial-market conditions, and to discuss existing portfolio positions or any recommended changes thereto. It also establishes an overall strategy regarding which securities will be purchased or sold on behalf of clients.

Vigilant’s Portfolio Managers (“PMs”) are responsible for the day-to-day management of client accounts. PMs make and direct buying-and-selling decisions for client accounts based on the IPC’s strategy and within the confines of each individual client’s investment objectives. The purchase and sale of securities for any client account are based on the IPC approval process and the list of approved security transactions that is prepared by the IPC. Vigilant’s PMs are: Scott Sorensen, Daniel Mulkern, Christopher Lyford, Jean Trim, Samuel Witherspoon, Hannah Santy, John Evans, and James Holler.

Scott D. Sorensen, CFA[®], ChFC[®]

Item 2: Educational Background and Business Experience

Scott D. Sorensen is a Founder and Principal of Vigilant and serves as the firm’s Chief Investment Officer and Chair of the Investment Policy Committee. He also serves select client relationships as the portfolio manager. Mr. Sorensen was born in 1969. He earned a B.S. in Business Administration and Finance from the Peter T. Paul School of Business & Economics at the University of New Hampshire in 1992.

Prior to founding Vigilant in 2002, Mr. Sorensen served as a Vice President and portfolio manager at Fleet Investment Advisors. In this position he managed investment portfolios for high net worth families, non-profit organizations, and institutional clients. Mr. Sorensen is a past member of the Dean’s Advisory Board of the Peter T. Paul School of Business & Economics at the University of New Hampshire. He currently serves on the Advisory Board of the RIA Institute.

Mr. Sorensen received the Chartered Financial Analyst designation from the CFA[®] Institute in 2001 and is a member of the Boston Chapter of the CFA[®] Institute. The Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA[®]) designation is an international professional certification offered by the CFA[®] Institute to financial analysts who complete a series of three six-hour examinations, possess a bachelor’s degree from an accredited institution (or have equivalent education or work experience) and have 48 months of qualified, professional work experience. CFA[®] charter holders are also obligated to adhere to a strict Code of Ethics and Standards governing their professional conduct. Mr. Sorensen received the Chartered Financial Consultant designation from the Huebner School at The American College of Financial Services in 2000. The Chartered Financial Consultant (ChFC[®]) designation from the Huebner School requires the successful completion of eight courses, 36 months of qualified, professional work experience, and compliance with The American College Code of Ethics and Procedures.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

The disclosures required under this Item of Form ADV Part 2B are not applicable to Mr. Sorensen. Mr. Sorensen has not been the subject of any legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client’s or prospective client’s evaluation of Mr. Sorensen.

Form ADV Part 2B	Applicant: Vigilant Wealth Management	SEC File No. 801-61006	Date: March 30, 2023

Item 4: Other Business Activities

The disclosures required under this Item of Form ADV Part 2B are not applicable to Mr. Sorensen. Mr. Sorensen is not actively engaged in any investment-related business or occupation other than Vigilant.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

In addition to salary, Mr. Sorensen is entitled to receive compensation from Vigilant for maintaining existing, and generating new, clients.

Item 6: Supervision

Vigilant’s Executive Committee (composed of Scott Sorensen, Daniel Mulkern and Jeffrey Carlisle) reviews the performance of all Vigilant employees, including the members of the IPC. Mr. Sorensen, as the Chair of the firm’s IPC, reviews and monitors the investment related activities of the IPC and its members. Additionally, Mr. Sorensen is primarily responsible for monitoring the advice that each PM provides to clients. With respect to the investment advice that Mr. Sorensen provides to clients, the Wealth Advisor (“WA”) for a client account is responsible for monitoring the advice provided by Mr. Sorensen to that client. Lawrence Blaisdell, as Chief Compliance Officer, is responsible for maintaining and overseeing Vigilant’s compliance program.
